The 883 is about as little as you can pay for a new Harley, Street 500 aside. It looks the part but does it deliver? The Iron 883, so named after its engine capacity in cc-age, is part of H-D's Sportster range that dates back to the early 50s, and in so far as cost goes, it slots above the entry-level 500 but beneath most other H-D offerings.
