Il calibro Miyota 8215 è uno dei calibri giapponesi più diffusi al mondo. Progettato dalla Citizen nel 1977, ha animato, ed anima tutt'ora, un numero di orologi enorme. È un movimento meccanico a carica automatica con indicazione di ore, minuti, secondi, giorno e data con rimessa rapida.

The 8215 is no different and is essentially a "step down" the ladder from the 9015. This means you're most likely to see the 9015 in very cheap watches (maximum $350) alongside a lot of microbrands and start-up watch companies. While the 8215 is seen by many as a reliable workhorse, it's not without its faults.
